The Most Dangerous Man in America

Mesabi Range Community & Technical College - Virginia Campus

Thursday, January 19 - 7:00 pm

The Most Dangerous Man in America tells the story of Daniel Ellsberg, a Pentagon official who leaked 7,000 pages of secret documents to the New York Times and proved that the Vietnam war was based on lies. “Dangerous Man” tells how one man created a landmark struggle involving America's president and Supreme Court. From Daniel Ellsberg, Howard Zinn and secret White House tapes, we learn why Richard Nixon and Henry Kissinger labeled Ellsberg "the most dangerous man in America."

This presentation will be followed in February by WikiSecrets: Bradley Manning, Julian Assange – the new Ellsbergs who are experiencing worse than what Ellsberg endured.

These forums are a FREE series of semi-monthly public interest programs sponsored by The Center for Ideation & Innovation at Mesabi Range College and Dr. Erickson.
